

Texas Law Firm Rosenthal Pauerstein Sandoloski Agather Works Smarter with iManage Work 10

Modern user experience and smart features help firm streamline searches, easily find critical documents and emails

CHICAGO – March 20, 2018 – iManage, the company dedicated to transforming how professionals work, today announced that Rosenthal Pauerstein Sandoloski Agather LLP (RPSA) — a leading business law firm based in San Antonio, Texas — has deployed iManage Work 10 for document and email management to enhance attorney productivity and enable them to find essential work product more quickly than ever.

At the heart of iManage Work 10 is a new, powerful modern user experience that empowers professionals to easily work from any device — desktops, phones and tablets. iManage Work 10 also introduces features like Smart Worklists, Smart Previews and Document Timelines, which provide valuable insights into the progress of key documents and projects. Personalized search, powered by AI, makes search powerful and intuitive, eliminating complex search forms and keywords.

“Our busy attorneys don’t have time to dig through a complicated file structure to find documents they need,” said Tim Martin, IT Manager, RPSA. “Many of our lawyers work remotely and need to find their legal documents quickly. With iManage Work 10’s simple interface, they can just type what they’re looking for into the search box and pull it up instantly. We’ve seen a huge uptick in user adoption because of how profoundly easy it is to find documents now.”

iManage partner Carm Consulting assisted RPSA with the move to iManage Work 10, deployed in the iManage Cloud. Since going live, the firm has rolled out iManage Work 10 to the firm’s entire support staff and lawyers.

“We designed iManage Work 10 to match the way today’s busy professionals want to work, so they can deliver even better work to their clients,” said Dan Carmel, Chief Marketing Officer, iManage. “With iManage Work 10 in the iManage Cloud, RPSA has gained important competitive advantages by reducing costs, improving productivity and enabling professionals to be more responsive to their clients.”
