Legal assistant to work smarter, deliver faster

iManage

Making knowledge work

Empower your legal practice with AI-powered efficiency

Legal professionals face increasing workloads, tighter deadlines, and growing expectations. To stay ahead, you must work more efficiently. Ask iManage helps you do just that, returning valuable time to focus on high-value legal work, career growth, and strategic decision-making.

The challenge: Balancing workload and career growth

As a legal professional, you juggle numerous responsibilities: handling complex matters, switching between cases, and ensuring accuracy under time pressure. Manual tasks like extracting, formatting, and summarizing information slow you down — taking time away from strategic thinking and client advisory. The key to advancing your career is mastering the tools that streamline your work.

Ask iManage: The powerful AI assistant

Ask iManage integrates seamlessly into your workflow, allowing you to automate mundane tasks and extract information quickly — all without learning a new application or needing to be a prompt expert. With just one click, you can:

- Summarize key positions in documents for faster analysis.
- Extract specific clauses verbatim across multiple documents to review.
- Analyze whether a document aligns with a stated position.
- Generate Q&A responses for instant clarity.
- Create tables with key data — like judges, jurisdictions, or case details — for easy comparison.
- Ensure accuracy with citations provided to trace every response back to its source in your content.
